OPHTHALMOLOGY CASE PRESENTATION

PRIYA ASHOK MENON
7TH TERM
RAMAIAH MEDICAL COLLEGE

PATIENT PARTICULARS

- Name : Mrs X
- Age : 65 years
- Homemaker
- Upper class by Modified Kuppuswamy Classification
- Residence : Whitefield, Bangalore
- Date of examination : 22.2.2020

CHIEF COMPLAINTS

- Diminution of vision in both eyes since 8 months, right eye more than left eye.

HISTORY OF PRESENTING ILLNESS

- Patient was apparently alright 8 months back, when she developed diminution of vision in both eyes, right eye more than the left eye. It was insidious in onset and gradually progressed to the current state. It was not associated with pain.
- Diminution of vision was same for both distance and near vision and was more in bright light.
- It was associated with glare.
- She also mentioned that initially she was able to differentiate colors well but now she finds colors dull.

- It was not associated with Redness;
- Watering;
- Discharge;
- Headache;
- Double Vision;
- Colored halos;
- Frequent changing of glasses;

OCULAR HISTORY

- She uses glasses since 20 years.
- No history of ocular surgeries
- No history of trauma
- No history of using eye drops in the past

PAST HISTORY

- Patient is a known diabetic since 15 years and hypertension since 10 years and is on medication for the same.
- No history of Asthma, COPD, Ischemic heart disease.

FAMILY HISTORY

- No significant family history

PERSONAL HISTORY

- Mixed diet, predominantly non vegetarian.
- Normal Apetite
- Regular Bowel and Bladder Movements
- Normal Sleep
- No ill habits

GENERAL PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

- Patient was examined under adequate light.
- She was well oriented to time place and person.
- Height : 153 cm Weight : 65kg BMI : 27.7Kg/m^2
- Vitals :

Temperature : 98F

Pulse : 82 beats per minute

Blood Pressure : 140/ 80 mm Hg ; Right Arm Sitting Position

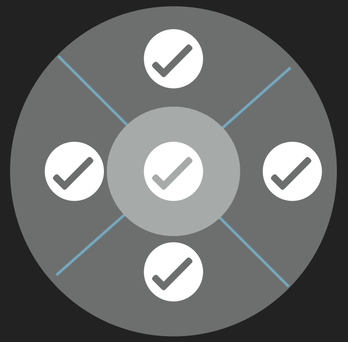

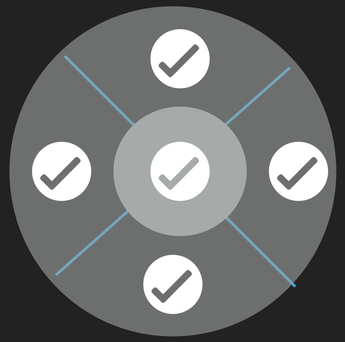

Respiratory Rate : 16 per minute

No Pallor, Icterus, Cyanosis, Clubbing, Lymphadenopathy, Edema.

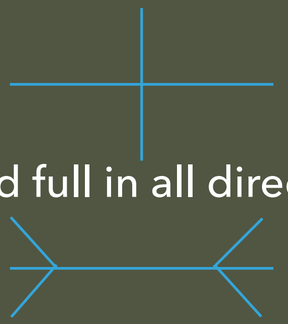

OCULAR EXAMINATION

- Head Posture Straight and erect.
- Both sides of the face are symmetric in appearance
- Ocular Symmetry : Symmetrical

	Right Eye	Left Eye
Visual Acuity (Bedside)	Counting fingers more than 6 m	Counting fingers more than 6 m
Eye Brows	Normal	Normal
Eyelids	Normal	Normal
Eyelashes	Normal	Normal
Conjunctiva	Normal	Normal
Cornea	Normal in size Shape Transparency Sheen	Normal in size Shape Transparency Sheen

	Right Eye	Left Eye
Corneal Sensations
Sclera	Normal	Normal
Anterior chamber	Normal depth and clear content	Normal depth and clear content

	Right Eye	Left Eye
Iris	Dark Brown in color	Dark Brown in color
	Normal pattern	Normal pattern
Pupil	3mm round and circular	3mm round and circular
Direct Reflex	Present briskly reactive	Present briskly reactive
Indirect reflex	Present briskly reactive	Present briskly reactive
Near reflex	Present	Present

	Right Eye	Left Eye
Lens	Greyish white opacity seen Iris shadow seen	Greyish white opacity seen Iris shadow seen
Ocular Movements
Duction	Free and full in all directions	Free and full in all directions
Versions
Lacrimal Apparatus
Punctum	Normal	Normal
Skin over lacrimal sac	Normal	Normal
ROPLAS	Negative	Negative
Digital Tonometry	Firm and Fluctuant	Firm and Fluctuant

SUMMARY

- Mrs X, 65 yr old homemaker, came with complaint of painless diminution of vision in both eyes since 8 months, Right eye more than left eye. It was same for near and distance vision and was associated with glare .On examination, the patient was found to have a grayish white opacity in the right and left pupillary area and iris shadow was present.

PROVISIONAL DIAGNOSIS

- Bilateral Senile Immature Cataract.