Cataract case presentation

Presentor:Aashna (3rd year)
Moderator:
Dr.Akshatha Prakash
Dr.Ramya Nadig

- Name-Ms.Sunita
- Age:74 years
- Sex:Female
- Address:Bangalore

- Occupation:Retired teacher
- Socio economic status: Middle class (according to kuppuswamy scale)
- Informant:Patient herself
- Information:Reliable

- Chief Complaints: Diminution of vision in left eye from 4 months.

- History of Presenting Illness: The patient was apparently normal 4 months back when she developed diminution in vision in her left eye which was gradual in onset and progressive in nature present throughout the day without any aggravating or relieving factors and not associated with pain.

There was no history of redness,itching,watering of eyes.

- Past Ocular History:

The patient has had cataract operation in her right eye 6 months back.

No history of trauma,squint,lazy eye or any other significant past ocular history.

The patient uses reading glasses.

No history of usage of eyedrops.(steroids)

- Past Medical History: The patient is a hypertensive since the past 5 years on medication(Telmisartan)
- No history of diabetes,rheumatoid arthritis,sarcoidosis,asthma,eczema or any other significant past medical history.
  No history of allergies

- Family History: Both parents were known hypertensives on medication.

On Examination:

General Physical Examination:

No Pallor
No Icterus
No Cyanosis
No Clubbing
No Lymphadenopathy
No Edema

Vitals:

Temperature:98.9 F
Blood Pressure:160/100 mm Hg
Pulse:70 bpm
Respiratory Rate:17 cycles per min

Systemic Examination:

CNS:No focal neurological deficits
CVS:S1 and S2 heard and no murmurs heard
RS:Normal vesicular breath sounds heard.
P/A:Soft and non tender abdomen

Ocular Examination

Head posture: normal

No facial asymmetry

Ocular Posture:Both eyes are aligned straight-Orthotropic

	Right Eye	Left Eye
Visual Acuity	Distant and near vision normal(with glasses)	decreased Distant and near vision
Eye Brows	Normal	Normal
Eyelids	Normal	Normal

Eyelashes	Normal	Normal
Conjuctiva(palpebral and bulbar and forniceal conjunctiva)	Normal	Normal
Cornea(examined under torch light)	arcus senilis	arcus senilis
Sclera	Normal	Normal
Anterior Chamber
Contents	Clear	Clear
Depth	Normal	Normal
Iris
Colour	Normal	Normal
Pattern	Normal	Normal

Pupil	Round,regular and reactive to light	Round,regular and reactive to light
Response to Light
Direct Reflex	Present	Present
Indirect Reflex	Present	Present
Near Reflex	Present	Present
Lens	Shimmering reflex seen	milky white in colour
Lacrimal Apparatus
Lacrimal Punctum	Normal	Normal
Skin over the lacrimal sac	Normal	Normal
ROPLAS	Negative	Negative
Digital Tonometry	Fluctuation Present(Normal)	Fluctuation Present(Normal)

Ocular Movements
Duction	Free and full	Free and full
Version	Free and full	Free and full
Vergences	Free and full	Free and full

The patient is a 74 year old female who came with the complaints of painless diminution of vision in the left eye .
On examination the left eye was found to have cataract and the right eye was psedophakic.

Provisional Diagnosis:Cataract in the left eye.

Right eye is pseudophakic.

Thank
You